For Permanent disablement not specified the degree of Disablement shall be assessed by the Company who will adopt a percentage of Disablement by comparison with the percentages shown in this scale without taking into account the occupation of the Insured Person.

If Benefit is payable in respect of the same Insured Person for more than one form of Permanent Disablement as the result of the same accident the total of the percentages so payable shall not exceed 100% of the Sum Insured for Permanent Disablement. If Benefit is payable for loss or loss of use of a whole limb of the body the Benefits for parts of that limb cannot also be claimed.

3. Temporary Total Disablement

4. Temporary Partial Disablement

A weekly benefit for up to 104 weeks in all from the date of the accident.

A compulsory excess of the first 3 days will apply.

5. Medical Expenses

A Lump Sum

General Notes

Where both are insured, Weekly Benefit is payable in addition to the Death or Permanent Disablement Benefit.

Payment is made under only one of the Death and Permanent Disablement Benefits

Disablement must have lasted 52 weeks before Permanent Total Disablement Benefit becomes payable, but if insured, Weekly Benefit is also payable during this period.

Upon Benefit 2 – Permanent Partial Disablement – becoming payable no further liability shall attach to the Company in respect of the Insured person concerned in connection with the same accident.

Medical Expenses claims are payable independently of other Benefits. They are not payable if the Insured Person is entitled to free medical Treatment.

On the happening of an accident giving rise to a claim under either of Benefits 1 (Death) and 2 (Permanent Total Disablement) this Policy shall threreafter cease to apply to the Insured Person concerned.

No benefit shall be payable due solely to inability to take part in sports or pastimes.
